

Hampden Veterinary Hospital

Celebrating 50 years of RCVS Accreditation

“a splendid smart and well equipped traditional mixed practice - an impressive set-up” (RCVS 2017)

Out of Hours small animal vet

Hampden Veterinary Hospital in Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire is seeking to recruit an Out of Hours small animal vet to join our night duty team. This well-established recently rebuilt hospital is very well equipped with 3 theatres, many cages including 10 walk in kennels, separate cattery and exotic wards, a state of the art laboratory and the option to use our self-contained flat for the duty vet.

This is a newly established service so hours and rotas are under consideration. Either a 7 nights on 7 off or 7 on and 14 off rotas are proposed. You would work alongside an experienced RVN. As our OOH vet you would be expected to have excellent communication skills, be experienced in emergency medicine and surgery as you will be dealing with a variety of cases during the night, as well as providing continuing care for our existing in patients. Previous experience of OOH working and ECC is desirable.

Benefits include –

Attractive salary

28 days holiday pro rata

CPD allowance, potential to undertake a certificate

Discounted vet fees and products

RCVS and VDS fees paid

Benefits of working in a practice that is a part of Vet Partners

Please send your CV with covering letter to smallanimal@hampdenvets.co.uk

Please note, it may not always be possible to reply to all applicants. If this is the case, please accept our thanks for your interest in working for us.